

The essay should be four-to six- pages (exclusive of the APA title and reference pages). Prepare a four to six page paper, following the APA guidelines, on one of the following topics:

- 1) Compare/Contrast the views of the current and/or former United States Presidents on Labor Unions and what they have done to either limit or expand Labor Unions.
- 2) Discuss a person or group that has significantly influenced or contributed to the Labor Movement in the United States.

The Essay must reflect college-level writing and thinking, and will contribute 50% of the overall evaluation.

Use the following guidelines to help you develop your essay:

- For the first topic compare and contrast former or current U.S. Presidents and describe in detail policies, laws, or practices created, continued or enforced that have affected Labor Unions. Discuss the Presidents' political ideologies in regards to Labor Unions. You may Compare/Contrast between 2-4 different U.S. Presidents. You can cite current events, policies and laws as well as personal examples from your employment.
- For the second topic give a detailed description of any one person or affiliated group that has brought a significant change to Labor Unions in the U.S. Include any legislation, practices or public opinion that was created or changed because of them.
- In the essay, you are expected to present the issues and explain the issues in detail using outside sources to reinforce your thesis statement
- Discuss the impact these issues will have (if any) on the law enforcement community and provide a critical analysis of the current issue.
- You must include a minimum of three (3) academic sources.
- This essay must be prepared in APA style and should be four-to six- double-spaced pages (not including the APA title and reference pages).
